EXPENSE OF RACING.

"Few persons have any idea of the enormous expense incurred by a millionaire turfman," says the New York Sun of Dec. 20. "Racing has often been called the 'sport of kings,' because of the great amount of money involved and the fact that only men of wealth can race on a large scale. W. C. Whitney headed the list of winning owners the past season, his share of the stakes and purses amounting to nearly $100,000; but it is estimated by conservative turfmen that it cost Mr. Whitney close to $75,000 to run his stable.

"To race on the same scale with Mr. Whitney, Mr. Haggis, Mr. Belmont, Mr. Keene and other millionaire owners," said a well-known horseman at the Hoffman House the other day, "requires plenty of money. In the first place, a trainer like John W. Rogers, who handles the Whitney horses, or James Rowe, trainer for the Keenes, must be engaged at a salary of close to $10,000 a year. Then if you want to have two such jockeys as Redfern and Burns, you must pay the price. Redfern received about $17,000 from Mr. Whitney last season, and Burns got $10,000. Without high-class jockeys a millionaire starting in fresh is at a big disadvantage from the very beginning.

"If you want to win rich stakes you have to make liberal nominations. The forfeits and entrance fees alone amount to a small fortune. It is safe to say that Mr. Whitney during the past year paid out $25,000 in forfeits and fees of various kinds. A rich owner generally has about twenty horses in his stables and it costs on an average about $4 a day for each. This includes feed and stable hands and practically covers all other items taken in connection with the care of the thoroughbreds. At the rate of $80 a day and 200 days in the racing season here, it would cost $16,000 to keep a stable of this size. Transportation is another large item, so that one can readily see that many rich stakes and purses must be won before expenses are paid.

"A poor owner, who has half a dozen selling platers, has expenses correspondingly small. He generally trains the horses himself and engages any available jockey at the prevailing terms, $25 for a winning mount and $15 for a loser. He does not believe in big stakes, but depends on overnight events or selling races, where he has a chance to win a purse of $400, $500, $600, $700 or a $1,000 now and then, which always comes in handy. He can maintain his few horses at $2 a day each or less, and his transportation is kept down to a minimum. But it is pretty hard picking for these poor owners on the Metropolitan tracks when they have to buck up against the powerful stables of Keene, Whitney, Thomas & Shields and many others.

"It was a fact that during the fall meeting at Brighton there were 350 horses stabled at that track, and at Sheepshead Bay and Gravesend, that had not won a race all the season. Their owners were pretty nearly all in, and a long, cold winter made them handle their loose change gingerly. It was a question of moment how they were going to be able to pay feed bills. Some of them succeeded in scraping enough money together to take their horses to New Orleans, where they've got a chance to put their feet on velvet before next spring.

"I can tell you that it is a pretty risky business to start a racing stable if you haven't a bank roll to draw on. Luck is everything in racing. Some people have it with them all the time, and they are enabled to build up a powerful stable in time. Then they can afford to lose now and then, because they've got the capital to win back all they drop. Other poor fellows have nothing but adversity to contend with, and in some cases their run of misfortune is pitiable. Yet with the Fates against them they hang on, always hopeful that something will turn up."

"An illustration of the vicissitudes of poor owners was the case of Wally Fessenden, the former baseball umpire, who owned Pass Book when he won at Jamaica at 100 to 1. Fessenden said recently that on the day the killing was effected he spent his last $2 in the morning for breakfast for himself and wife. He had arranged to have two Wall Street men bet $1,500 on Pass Book, his share to be half the gross winnings. After the race Fessenden cut up nearly $50,000 with the brokers and is having a most comfortable winter."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

With Africander coming along well at Gravesend, there will be an opportunity, barring accidents, of his wiping out the defeat he suffered in The September, when The Picket finished in front of him handily. It was in that race that Africander pulled up so lame that he had to be retired, and it was feared for a time that he had suffered a bowed tendon. Latest reports are that he is in the best of health, and an occasional romp in his Gravesend paddock is ample proof as to his spirits. These colts should meet in many of the big classics, for which it is promised both will be pointed, and their meeting will be looked forward to with interest both east and west.

Gorman & Bauer, it is reported, have decided to race exclusively in the east next year. All but the best of their present string will be disposed of, and they hope to have a winning stable. The star of the string is the Mirthful colt Bardolph, which was one of the good three-year-olds of the west during the last season. The standby of the stable, however, is Jack Rattlin, now a four-year-old. Jack Rattlin is a sort of second Logan, one of the kind that goes on for a long time, if not forever. Jack Rattlin has started against all sorts of horses and under varying conditions as to weight and track, but has always given a good account of himself. Gorman went east two years ago with Mabel Winn and a few other horses of moderate class, and although his colors were seen in front on several occasions, his horses were not the kind to win the big events. He was mixed up in a selling race strife while there that was no doubt a bit expensive.

An agreement was made last Saturday at Lexington, Ky., by Major T. J. Carson, Baker & Gentry, Colonel E. F. Clay, Catesby Woodford, J. N. Camden, Jr., and L. P. Tarlton to offer their yearlings together in one sale during the spring in New York City. The offering will consist of sons and daughters of Ben Strome, St. George and Sir Dixon. The plan is to sell them in blocks of five at a time from each farm. The aggregation will make over 100 head.

George C. Graddy, the Versailles turfman, has bought of Tom Griffin the three-year-old chestnut filly Musical Slipper, by Chorister—Cinderella, by Hermit. She will be retired to the stud and bred to Tithonus. Price private.

Winner—Ch. c, by Fonso—Falerna (trained by R. Tucker).
Went to post at 2:00. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Falernian outclassed the field, went to the front without much effort and was never fully extended. Harmakis was under a drive all of the last furlong, but could never get to the leader. Louis Kraft outgamed Banwell in the struggle for third place. Chanley had to go all around his field to get up and finished fast. King's Charm quit in the last furlong and is unreliable. Clarence stumbled at the far turn and Creamer pulled him up. Caybon was next to the inside rail in the deep going for the entire trip.

Winner—B. c, by Sir Dixon—Arcadia (trained by J. P. Mayberry).
Went to post at 2:35. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Captain Arnold was outrun for the first half, but moved up fast while rounding the far turn, caught Bon Mot tiring in the stretch run and came away with a rush in the last furlong. Tribes Hill was bumped into at the start and carried to the outside at the first turn, but closed a big gap and finished fast. Rankin was on the extreme outside at the start and got off tangled up and never got to going well until half the trip was run, but came with a rush at the end and just managed to get up in time to beat out Bon Mot. The latter showed early speed, but tired in the stretch. Elsie L. tired after going six furlongs. Stand Pat can do better. Mrs. Frank Foster was rated in behind the leaders to the turn into the homestretch, but tired when called upon.
Scratched—43194 Floyd K., 93.
Overweights—Captain Arnold, 3 pounds; Stand Pat, 3.

WARNING TO HANDBOOK PATRONS

As there will be no more race results sent over the tickers, the public will have to depend upon information as given out by agents of the different handbooks. Players should do business with reliable agents, as the unreliable ones will be tempted to accept bets on the losers after they receive the winner over the telephone. If a bet is placed late the player should note the exact time and compare with the "off" time in Daily Racing Form, and if you think the result was already known to the layers write a letter, giving name of agent, location and name of agent's principal, and the undersigned will endeavor to adjust the matter.

challenge. The latter was reserved for the first half mile, but came with a rush at the end and was wearing the winner down at every stride. Mauser ran his race and finished gamely. Time, 25, 49½, 1:14½, 1:28½.

Winner—B. f. by Maximo—Annie Lewis (trained by C. Mulholland).

Went to post at 4:07. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Annie Max was outrun for the first half, but moved up around the leaders at the turn into the homestretch where she came wide, then finished fast when straightened out and out-gamed Bud Embry at the end. The latter showed the most early speed, raced Circus Girl and Macbeth into submission, but tired when it came to the deciding drive. Ivernina was on the inside in the heavy going while rounding the far turn, dropped back and then came again and finished well. Hands Across tired after going a half. Homestead could never get up, had an outside position at the post and was bumped into and crowded back at the start. Macbeth ran well.

Annie Max, show, 8 to 5. Bud Embry, show, 2 to 1. Ivernina, show, evens. Hands Across, show, 2 to 5.

Time, 25, 49½, 1:15½, 1:42½, 1:47.

Winner—B. g. by Domino—Royal Gem (trained by J. Baker).

Went to post at 4:40. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. The Regent secured a lucky start, was off well in motion and escaped interference at the first turn, showed the most speed and won easily. Satire was crowded back at the start and had to squeeze through on the inside at the first turn, went to the outside in the run down the backstretch, was much used in getting to the leaders and tired when he got to The Regent. Malay met with a lot of interference in the early struggle and closed a big gap. Alpaca ran in improved form. H. L. Coleman was a keen contender for the first six furlongs, but was tiring in the last furlong and his rider eased him up. Burke Cochran was off badly and made up much ground.

Scratched—42890 Radford, 115.

Overweights—Star Gazer, 1 pound.

The Regent, show, 1 to 5. Satire, show, 2 to 5. Malay, show, 4 to 1.

Winner—B. c. by Nomad—Violetta (trained by P. S. Rickman).

Went to post at 2:06. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Arthur Ray, suddenly improved, was skillfully reserved in close attendance on the leaders to the stretch, where he made good in game fashion. Idogo beat his field away at the start and was placed in behind the early pacemaker hard held for a half, where he took a slight lead and seemed the winner when straightened for home, surrendering in the last furlong to the winner. Illilouon was shuffled back on the first turn and thereafter steadily improved his position, scoring a lucky and tiring third. Plan, nearly knocked out of the race on the far turn, closed a big gap and finished with a rush. Burdock had a rough journey in inadequate hands and came from a long way back in the stretch run. Tamm, very badly ridden, made up a tremendous lot of ground in the last six furlongs. El Oriente ran out on the stretch turn and tired all over at the end. Gibraltar showed early speed.

Scratched—43106 The Ledaean, 108; 43046 G. W. Trahern, 105.

Overweights—Gibraltar, 2 pounds.

Arthur Ray, show, 3 to 1. Idogo, show, evens. Illilouon, show, 3 to 2. El Oriente, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g. by St. George—Fanfare (trained by T. G. Ferguson).

Went to post at 2:32. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Military Man forced the pace to the stretch, where he came away in decisive fashion and was much the best. Dargin ran under waiting tactics early in the race, then went up on even terms with the winner, and after a sharp brush, succumbed, tiring badly in the closing drive. Flea held on steadily in third position throughout and was going fast at the end. Virginia Boy went moderately well.

Winner—Ch. f. by Inspector B.—Landslip (trained by A. F. Dayton).

Went to post at 2:56. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second the same. Soufriere, evidently a superior class filly in heavy going, held a forward position to the stretch, where she closed up with a meteoric rush and won going away. Landsdown, also improved in form on a difficult track, was a prominent contender throughout, and finishing fast, ran a cracking good race. Albemarle improved his position throughout and was coming like a cyclone at the finish. Futurita, away badly and inadequately handled, held an inside position in the worst going throughout and was easily the best, was forced out of good position at the half to nearly last, and closing up gamely, finished with plenty in reserve. Cardwellton, away poorly, ran up into striking distance of the leaders and held on steadily to the end. Reeves was unable to raise a respectable gallop and ran a bad race. Alice Cary was outclassed here. Fort Wayne showed superior speed for five furlongs, but failed to stay. Glendenning tired after a brilliant display of speed and will make good on a fast track.

Scratched—43131 Bummer, 106; 43153*The Cure, 86.

Soufriere, show, 3 to 1. Landsdown, show, 2 to 1. Albemarle, show, evens. Reeves, show, 1 to 3. Glendenning, show, 7 to 10.

Winner—Br. h. by Sir Modred—Queen Bess, (trained by H. Stover).

Kenilworth got away running and forced the pace to the stretch, where he was momentarily headed by Royal Rogue, which he subsequently outstayed in a long closing drive. Royal Rogue ran a high class race in spite of his dislike for the going and would probably have won but for the loss of a stirrup leather at the start. He got away slowly in consequence and a good deal was taken out of him to get up to the winner. Iredeus trailed the leaders closely throughout, just about holding his own at the end. Muresca showed a fine burst of speed for half the distance, tiring badly in the stretch and was far outclassed in her present form.

No show betting.

Time, 25, 49½, 1:16, 1:44, 1:48.

Winner—Br. g. by Belvidere—Virgie D. (trained by D. Lamasney).

Went to post at 3:46. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Silurian got away running and raced into a long lead and appeared like making a runaway race of it, but tiring badly and swerving across the track at the end, he gained a lucky decision. Caronal, away flatfooted and bumped on the first turn, closed up like a streak from last place in the middle half of the running and finally wore the leaders down at the end. Royalty showed astonishingly improved form and held on gamely in a long closing drive. Cougar, under a bad ride, fell to the rear immediately and appeared to be busy fouling the favorite, could never get up into contention and ran a bad race. Prince Blazes tired right at the end after showing improved form.

Scratched—43216 Illoah, 107.

Silurian, show, 2 to 5. Caronal, show, 1 to 5. Royalty, show, 2 to 1.

JOCKEYS HANDICAPPED.

Daily Racing Form will publish from time to time a table of the rating of the jockeys riding at New Orleans and on the California tracks, based on their performances in the saddle. The best riders at each track will be given the uniform rating of 100, and from that point the others will be graded down according to their estimated relative skill. For a difference of five points between the jockeys three points change in the handicap figures assigned the horses in any race must be made. Only riders frequently in the saddle will be given a place in the tables. The following is the rating of the jockeys now riding over the named tracks:

FAY'S YEARLINGS.

From the office of the the jockey club in New York John Fay has received notification of the acceptance and registration of names for fourteen yearlings which are now at Louisville.

The chestnut colt by Top Gallant—Marie Shanklin (dam of Copperfield and Benckart) is named James H. Reed, for the popular steward of the Eastern Kentucky Insane Asylum at Lexington.

The bay colt by St. Andrew—Candid (dam of Cambaceres and Libbie Candid) is called Jug Edwards, a turf follower.

James Warren, the name given the chestnut colt by Bassettlaw—Fedalma (dam of Meehanus) comes from that of the cashier of one of the Memphis banks.

Tommy O'Hara, after a noted turf character, is a chestnut colt by Inverness—Fleda B. (dam of Prince Rupert and Marlin).

Mr. Jack is the brown colt by Henry Young—Pearl Finzer, and Mrs. Jack is the chestnut chestnut filly by Esher—Lindenette.

The brown colt by Bassettlaw—Darine, is called Piker Clerk.

Odd Luck, ch. c, by The Pepper—Eleanor. This is a half brother to James J. Corbett and Deborah.

Fox Hunting, b. c, by Longstreet—American Lady.

Lilliandra, b. f, by The Pepper—Mildred.

Fallen Star, b. f, by Flying Dutchman—Nettie Howell (dam of Haphazard and Leonawell).

Fallen Leaf, b. f, by Russell—Penelope (dam of W. B. Gates and Dr. Walmsley).

Girl from Dixie, b. f, by Sir Dixon—Eloperment (dam of Alcedo).

Rondolet, b. f, by Handsome—Doreen.

STAMPING GROUND.

Stamping Ground, the sterling daughter of Lamplighter and Ellise, has been near to death within the last few days, says the Morning Telegraph of December 19. She had an attack of pneumonia, and it was only through the incessant vigilance of Dr. Farley that her life was preserved. When this filly won the Alabama Stakes at Saratoga, at a mile and a sixteenth on the turf, last August her performance was of the kind that made people believe that she was about the best of her age and sex that had thus far been uncovered. The three-year-old fillies of 1903 had made no bright mark in turf annals until this particular race, and when Stamping Ground finished first, with such performers as Gravina, Astarita, Ada Nay, Stolen Moments, Wild Thyme, Judith Campbell, Girdle and others behind her, it was not going far to say that she dominated her class. It will be said that the conditions were all in favor of Stamping Ground on the occasion of her victory. The running of the Alabama Stakes over the new grass course at Saratoga was the initial race on that particular track, and so it was particularly unfortunate that a steady, soaking rain had put the course in such condition that all previous work counted for nothing at all. But the fact remains that Stamping Ground was first home, even though it was apparent that her advantage lay in her ability to negotiate the doubtful going. Off none too well, Stamping Ground trailed in the early part, but when she made her move, there was nothing else in the race, for she won easily, leaving it to Gravina and Astarita to fight for the place honors. After the race F. R. Doctor, the owner of Stamping Ground, received an offer of $12,000 for his filly, which he promptly refused. Although she was not always successful after that, she showed her extreme worth by beating Injunction and a field of others at Sheephead Bay in September, following this up by a defeat of Eugenia Burch and others at Gravesend. On her last appearance for the year, at Jamaica, on November 10, Stamping Ground beat Colonsay, Sheriff Bell and Wild Thyme in the Mineola Handicap, at a mile and a sixteenth. In spite of her recent serious illness, Dr. Farley believes that Stamping Ground will race again next year.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Ed Botany, the dean of the handicappers, has arrived at New Orleans from New York. Mr. Botany is considered one of the most able men among the many that figure probable results.

Albert Simons has sold his two-year-old filly Symphony to D. W. Wilse. The terms of the sale were not made public.

challenge. The latter was reserved for the first half mile, but came with a rush at the end and was wearing the winner down at every stride. Mauser ran his race and finished gamely. Time, 25, 49½, 1:14½, 1:28½.

Winner—B. f, by Maximo—Annie Lewis (trained by C. Mulholland).

Went to post at 4:07. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Annie Max was outrun for the first half, but moved up around the leaders at the turn into the homestretch where she came wide, then finished fast when straightened out and out-gamed Bud Embry at the end. The latter showed the most early speed, raced Circus Girl and Macbeth into submission, but tired when it came to the deciding drive. Ivernias was on the inside in the heavy going while rounding the far turn, dropped back and then came again and finished well. Hands Across tired after going a half. Homestead could never get up, had an outside position at the post and was bumped into and crowded back at the start. Macbeth ran well.

Annie Max, show, 8 to 5. Bud Embry, show, 2 to 1. Ivernias, show, evens. Hands Across, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. g, by Domino—Royal Gem (trained by J. Baker).

Went to post at 4:40. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. The Regent secured a lucky start, was off well in motion and escaped interference at the first turn, showed the most speed and won easily. Satire was crowded back at the start and had to squeeze through on the inside at the first turn, went to the outside in the run down the backstretch, was much used in getting to the leaders and tired when he got to The Regent. Malay met with a lot of interference in the early struggle and closed a big gap. Alpaca ran in improved form. H. L. Coleman was a keen contender for the first six furlongs, but was tiring in the last furlong and his rider eased him up. Burke Cochran was off badly and made up much ground.

Scratched—42890 Radford, 115.

Overweights—Star Gazer, 1 pound.

The Regent, show, 1 to 5. Satire, show, 2 to 5. Malay, show, 4 to 1.

Time, 26½, 52, 1:18½, 1:46.

Winner—B. c, by Nomad—Violetta (trained by P. S. Rickman).

Went to post at 2:06. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Arthur Ray, suddenly improved, was skillfully reserved in close attendance on the leaders to the stretch, where he made good in game fashion. Idogo beat his field away at the start and was placed in behind the early pacemaker hard held for a half, where he took a slight lead and seemed the winner when straightened for home, surrendering in the last furlong to the winner. Illilouon was shuffled back on the first turn and thereafter steadily improved his position, scoring a lucky and tiring third. Plan, nearly knocked out of the race on the far turn, closed a big gap and finished with a rush. Burdock had a rough journey in inadequate hands and came from a long way back in the stretch run. Tamm, very badly ridden, made up a tremendous lot of ground in the last six furlongs. El Oriente ran out on the stretch turn and tired all over at the end. Gibraltar showed early speed.

Scratched—43106 The Ledaeon, 108; 43046 G. W. Trahern, 105.

Overweights—Gibraltar, 2 pounds.

Arthur Ray, show, 3 to 1. Idogo, show, evens. Illilouon, show, 3 to 2. El Oriente, show, 2 to 5.

Time, 25½, 49½, 1:16½.

Winner—Ch. g, by St. George—Fanfare (trained by T. G. Ferguson).

Went to post at 2:32. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Military Man forced the pace to the stretch, where he came away in decisive fashion and was much the best. Dargin ran under waiting tactics early in the race, then went up on even terms with the winner, and after a sharp brush, succumbed, tiring badly in the closing drive. Flea held on steadily in third position throughout and was going fast at the end. Virginia Boy went moderately well.

Scratched—40256 Sacredus, 110.

Time, 26, 51½, 1:02½, 1:09½.

Winner—Ch. f, by Inspector B.—Landslip (trained by A. F. Dayton).

Went to post at 2:56. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second the same. Souffriere, evidently a superior class filly in heavy going, held a forward position to the stretch, where she closed up with a meteoric rush and won going away. Lansdown, also improved in form on a difficult track, was a prominent contender throughout, and finishing fast, ran a cracking good race. Albemarle improved his position throughout and was coming like a cyclone at the finish. Futurita, away badly and inadequately handled, held an inside position in the worst going throughout and was easily the best, was forced out of good position at the half to nearly last, and closing up gamely, finished with plenty in reserve. Cardwellton, away poorly, ran up into striking distance of the leaders and held on steadily to the end. Reeves was unable to raise a respectable gallop and ran a bad race. Alice Cary was outclassed here. Fort Wayne showed superior speed for five furlongs, but failed to stay. Glendenning tired after a brilliant display of speed and will make good on a fast track.

Scratched—43131 Bummer, 106; 43153 The Cure, 86.

Time, 24½, 48, 1:14½.

Winner—Br. h, by Sir Modred—Queen Bess, (trained by H. Stover).

Kenilworth got away running and forced the pace to the stretch, where he was momentarily headed by Royal Rogue, which he subsequently outstayed in a long closing drive. Royal Rogue ran a high class race in spite of his dislike for the going and would probably have won but for the loss of a stirrup leather at the start. He got away slowly in consequence and a good deal was taken out of him to get up to the winner. Iredeus trailed the leaders closely throughout, just about holding his own at the end. Muresca showed a fine burst of speed for half the distance, tiring badly in the stretch and was far outclassed in her present form.

No show betting.

Time, 25, 49½, 1:16, 1:44, 1:48.

Winner—Br. g, by Belvidere—Virgie D. (trained by D. Lamasney).

Went to post at 3:46. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Silurian got away running and raced into a long lead and appeared like making a runaway race of it, but tiring badly and swerving across the track at the end, he gained a lucky decision. Caronal, away flatfooted and bumped on the first turn, closed up like a streak from last place in the middle half of the running and finally wore the leaders down at the end. Royalty showed astonishingly improved form and held on gamely in a long closing drive. Cougar, under a bad ride, fell to the rear immediately and appeared to be busy fouling the favorite, could never get up into contention and ran a bad race. Prince Blazes tired right at the end after showing improved form.

Scratched—43216 Illowaho, 107.

JOCKEYS HANDICAPPED.

Daily Racing Form will publish from time to time a table of the rating of the jockeys riding at New Orleans and on the California tracks, based on their performances in the saddle. The best riders at each track will be given the uniform rating of 100, and from that point the others will be graded down according to their estimated relative skill. For a difference of five points between the jockeys three points change in the handicap figures assigned the horses in any race must be made. Only riders frequently in the saddle will be given a place in the tables. The following is the rating of the jockeys now riding over the named tracks:

FAY'S YEARLINGS.

From the office of the the jockey club in New York John Fay has received notification of the acceptance and registration of names for fourteen yearlings which are now at Louisville.

The chestnut colt by Top Gallant—Marie Shanklin (dam of Copperfield and Benckart) is named James H. Reed, for the popular steward of the Eastern Kentucky Insane Asylum at Lexington.

The bay colt by St. Andrew—Candid (dam of Cambaceres and Libbie Candid) is called Jug Edwards, a turf follower.

James Warren, the name given the chestnut colt by Bassetlaw—Fedalma (dam of Meehanus) comes from that of the cashier of one of the Memphis banks.

Tommy O'Hara, after a noted turf character, is a chestnut colt by Inverness—Fleda B. (dam of Prince Rupert and Marlin).

Mr. Jack is the brown colt by Henry Young—Pearl Finzer, and Mrs. Jack is the chestnut chestnut filly by Esher—Lindenette.

The brown colt by Bassetlaw—Darine, is called Piker Clerk.

Odd Luck, ch. c, by The Pepper—Eleanor. This is a half brother to James J. Corbett and Deborah.

Fox Hunting, b. c, by Longstreet—American Lady.

Lilliandra, b. f, by The Pepper—Mildred.

Fallen Star, b. f, by Flying Dutchman—Nettie Howell (dam of Haphazard and Leonawell).

Fallen Leaf, b. f, by Russell—Penelope (dam of W. B. Gates and Dr. Walmsley).

Girl from Dixie, b. f, by Sir Dixon—Eloement (dam of Alcedo).

Rondolet, b. f, by Handsome—Doreen.

STAMPING GROUND.

Stamping Ground, the sterling daughter of Lamplighter and Elise, has been near to death within the last few days, says the Morning Telegraph of December 19. She had an attack of pneumonia, and it was only through the incessant vigilance of Dr. Farley that her life was preserved. When this filly won the Alabama Stakes at Saratoga, at a mile and a sixteenth on the turf, last August her performance was of the kind that made people believe that she was about the best of her age and sex that had thus far been uncovered. The three-year-old fillies of 1903 had made no bright mark in turf annals until this particular race, and when Stamping Ground finished first, with such performers as Gravina, Astarita, Ada Nay, Stolen Moments, Wild Thyme, Judith Campbell, Girdle and others behind her, it was not going far to say that she dominated her class. It will be said that the conditions were all in favor of Stamping Ground on the occasion of her victory. The running of the Alabama Stakes over the new grass course at Saratoga was the initial race on that particular track, and so it was particularly unfortunate that a steady, soaking rain had put the course in such condition that all previous work counted for nothing at all. But the fact remains that Stamping Ground was first home, even though it was apparent that her advantage lay in her ability to negotiate the doubtful going. Off none too well, Stamping Ground trailed in the early part, but when she made her move, there was nothing else in the race, for she won easily, leaving it to Gravina and Astarita to fight for the place honors. After the race F. R. Doctor, the owner of Stamping Ground, received an offer of $12,000 for his filly, which he promptly refused. Although she was not always successful after that, she showed her extreme worth by beating Injunction and a field of others at Sheepshead Bay in September, following this up by a defeat of Eugenia Burch and others at Gravesend. On her last appearance for the year, at Jamaica, on November 10. Stamping Ground beat Colonsay, Sheriff Bell and Wild Thyme in the Mineola Handicap, at a mile and a sixteenth. In spite of her recent serious illness, Dr. Farley believes that Stamping Ground will race again next year.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Ed Botany, the dean of the handicappers, has arrived at New Orleans from New York. Mr. Botany is considered one of the most able men among the many that figure probable results.

Albert Simons has sold his two-year-old filly Symphony to D. W. Wilse. The terms of the sale were not made public.
